Conduct Unbecoming: A Memoir Desmond O'Malley

Candid, combative, and entertaining, Conduct Unbecoming is a compelling account of an extraordinary career. Desmond O'Malley leapt to prominence in 1970 as Jack Lynch's young and fiercely principled Minister for Justice. His role in the Arms Crisis earned him the enmity of Charles Haughey, O'Malley was finally ejected from Fianna Fáil in 1985. He would found the Progressive Democrats several months later. Conduct Unbecoming is a landmark political memoir from one of Ireland's most outspoken and respected public figures.
