What's the truth about life after death? Will our present state of consciousness change? If so, how? Are we simply obliterated? Will we be punished for our earthly failures, rewarded for our good deeds? Is there some omnipotent creator we must deal with? Will we be okay if we are simply sincere about whatever belief we commit to? There has been never-ending speculation about these questions from time immemorial. The myriad theories have left us in a state of uncertainty and confusion. But we do not have to be in limbo regarding life after death. This book reveals solid and dependable answers that will not only affect your afterlife-they will impact your day-to-day personal world now as well.
