A young boy visits Grandpa for the day, and enjoys Grandpa's affection even when he is too noisy or energetic. A charming book reminiscent of the best of family times, it is illustrated with photos from the 1950's. Familiar scenes of the homes and yards of decades ago prompt Grandma and Grandpa to share their memories with younger family members. Hardcover with sturdy, side-sewn bindings and quality paper, this book is made to be read over and over, and then passed on to the next bunch of kids.
