Falling in love with the wrong person can pull you out of character. And that's exactly what love does to Ariel once she absentmindedly falls head over heels for a thug. Ariel has her life in order, counseling students at a local high school. Although she prefers to play by the rules, she couldn't deny the sparks that fly when she meets the notorious Leon. Leon, known as the king of Los Angeles, floods the city with the finest drugs the drug game has to offer. He is a free spirited, go-getter, living life on the edge . So, when he first laid eyes on the vivacious, breathtaking and intelligent Ariel, he knew he had to have her. Even if he knew all he ultimately wanted from her was sex. Unbeknownst to him, she ends up being much more than an easy lay. What starts off as a occasional fling, turns into much more. Unable to keep their relationship on a no strings attached basis, Ariel finds herself falling in love and biting off more than she could chew. Leon introduces her to a lifestyle that was once foreign to her. Involving herself with drug dealing, gun violence, and murder, Ariel finds herself no longer playing by the rules but going against them with Leon by her side.
