Ebony has been with her boyfriend James for 4 years, but she eventually realizes that he is not as in love with her as she is with him. After being hit blow by blow of his treacherous affairs, she sits back and starts plotting her own revenge. Will she succeed in his demise? Or, will she bring upon her own downfall? Erica is in love with her best friend's man and does not care about anyone's feelings except hers. She will stop at nothing, even risk the life of someone close to her just to be with him. Tamara can't believe her dilemma. She has fallen for someone who is forbidden, but when a crisis arises she realizes that she deserves her happiness. But, will being happy bring on more drama? All these women share a common love for the same man... James! Will his deceit catch up with him? Or, will his life be spared even after the trail of broken hearts that he's dealt? Having more than his share of women is something that James may never be able to easily break away from in, One Bitch Just Ain't Enough..
