Pathway to the Big Picture John Blankenship

The Pathway to the Big Picture is a concept encouraging parents to use sports as a means to develop deeper relationships with their children. Sports is a microcosm of life that presents many opportunities to help kids develop essential life skills. This book challenges parents to consider the end result of parenting their children. Without a game plan, sports can become divisive to the parent/child relationship. However, following the pathway to the big picture allows you to avoid pitfalls and stumbling blocks that might prevent you from completing that journey with your children. Implementing these time tested traits will move you forward along the pathway of the big picture, and will allow sports to enhance the family relationship.
