Many times as little girls dreams are big from the house we will have, the handsome man we will magically find ourselves in the arms of, and the adorable children that comes there after. But we are not told how life has a totally different plan for us. Reality kicks in before a blink of an eye some sooner than others. So in this Book of poetry I explain how I became unstable with life roller coaster before the ride even reached the top. Before the big drop that sent waves of emotions of Love, Passion, Confusion, Doubt, and Pain. I choose this title because I have always admired the vision of a butterfly being in it's element of flying freely and I wanted so badly to feel free from it all and the only time I felt myself as that butterfly enjoying life flying high within beautiful flowers was when my pen was flowing so freely on paper letting all that I felt be said through words so perfectly put together. Now that my world only I knew Is now being shared I Hope you enjoy. I am now set Free!
