A grandmother is in an Inquisition prison suspected of secretly practicing Judaism. Officials who search for and burn every soul not devoted to the Church suspect the whole Crespion family is involved in this heresy.

Hidden Ones is a story about a granddaughter on the verge of womanhood living in a city on the North American continent that has turned against them. The family embarks on a perilous adventure from another era not unlike the immigrant journeys of today.

Can they run without their precious abuela? This tale shines a bright light on the hidden Crespion family in their attempt to survive in 17th century Mexico when most of the Americas were ruled by Spain.
