The Sightseeing Saviour: Florence with Kids Joanne Penn

An interactive guidebook aimed at kids aged 7-12 who are visiting Florence. The book lists the best attractions to visit with kids: museums, galleries, parks, gardens, markets and more. There are ideas for daytrips out of the city that the whole family can enjoy. It encourages them to speak a little Italian, even if it is just ordering the perfect ice-cream. For Florence's better known sights, there are 13 individual quizzes covering the Uffizi, Accademia, Duomo, Campanile, Ponte Vecchio, Santa Croce, Bargello and others. Each quiz will guide them round Florence's finest buildings and works of art. Older kids can do the quizzes alone, giving the adults the time to enjoy the sights. Younger kids can do the quizzes with a parent. Each question contains information about the history, people, buildings or art of Florence. At the back, there are answers and a results chart. With this book, your children will be learning while still having fun, helping make your trip to Florence special for everyone.
