Medieval Times Giovanni Di Pasquale, Matilde Bardi

Art and Civilization of Medieval Times reproduces a selection of key works of art from the Middle Ages and uses them as a springboard to explain the European world that created them. Beginning with the fall of the Roman Empire, this book goes on to cover trade, warfare, the origins and growth of the Islamic world, art, religion, daily life, and much more in accessible, two-page chapters. The faithful reproductions of major works of art as well as the easy-to-understand explanations make this book perfect for students doing research projects on Medieval Times and/or art history. Supplements school curriculum in history, social studies, and art.
