WARNING: This book contains extreme issues of Demonic Spiritual Warfare. Disturbed mental reflections may cause hallucinations and/or bad dreams and is intended for a mature audience. My first killing ever was of a stray alley cat that I beat to death mercilessly with a wooden board; I wanted to see if afterwards its spirit would dig its own way deep below the earth, hissing in agony all the way down. I never spoke much as a child, only to my dog Pepper, and when he died, I spoke to his ghost, which was actually a demon. I have beautifully scorched, invisible wings underneath my arms that I am never allowed to use in the light of man. The real me beneath all of this filthy human flesh is the demon of a child, disfigured horribly to match the image of what was left of my shattered soul. Together as Pepper and I fly away, I caress the demons wings gently against mine with what little strength I have left in my dying body; like a sleeping child might rub his blanket one last time before drifting off for an eternal sleep, nesting my fleshless, skeleton snugly against his thick, powerful neck, all the way down to the depths Hell. Was this really nothingness? Was I born to feel alone and hopeless in this darkness forever? How could anything so evil exist in the hands and mind of a child? "I promise I'll die quietly, Pepper. I just want this all to end".
