Culture Shock is a cutting edge, hands-on youth ministry resource for teens that anchors them in the truth of God and enables them to stand against the tide of culture—with purity and integrity—by giving them the tools they need to make God-honoring choices when faced with challenging situations.

Culture Shock—A Guide for Leaders will help you equip the next generation to be pure in heart, mind, and body through practical steps, freeing truths, and a deep, personal relationship with Jesus.

Culture Shock—A Guide for Leaders is a five-session curriculum for teens that teaches them to replace the lies they hear with the truth of God.

- Each session has activities that relate to purity, media influence, and investing time in God's high calling.
- Each session is flexible to allow leaders to cater the curriculum to the needs of their group.
- Each session can be adapted for use in large groups, small groups, weekend retreats, camps, or in combinations of the above.
- Plus, there are FREE resources available online: forums, instructional videos, training material, additional video clip suggestions, and more.
