Garden of Life: a poetic awakening Jaya Kamlani

Garden of Life is an enchanting collection of poems about great legends and dreams, war and peace, the great divide of America, personal transformation, and nature scenes. This is no ordinary poetry book. This book is intended to bring change to America and to the world. The white peacock on the front cover stands for peace.

Legends such as the life and teachings of the first Buddha – Siddhartha Gautama Buddha, and the story of the young Egyptian King, Tutankhamen. War poems, such as the Vietnam War, the 9/11 tragedy, American invasion of Iraq, the Syrian War, and even corporate war on America are penned in the book.

Our beautiful world has been torn apart by hatred, violence, and pollution. It needs a lot of healing. Despite our different faiths, cultures and geographies, we must rise together in love, peace and compassion to support progress.
