You know what they say about pastor's daughters, or do you? Raised in the Pew is a collection of stories, advice, and laughter from the kids who lived it. Join author Rena Garcia on the journey of over 100 pastors' kids (PKs), their triumph, their defeat, and their parents. This unique perspective is given without judgment or hesitation. She has included her own experiences and that of others to give you an honest look at what children who grow up in a ministry setting might encounter. PKs from all over the country and all different walks of life have given their advice and shared their stories, some very comical and positive, some very serious and painful. Though there are many upsides to being a PK, this book explores both the positive and more negative sides of life as a PK.
