The Dumb Things Sold...Just Like That! Al Hesselbart

Al Hesselbart, historian for the RV Hall of Fame Museum in Elkhart, Indiana, and the world's recognized expert on the history of the RV industry, traces the roots of modern recreational vehicles, from the grand old days of auto camping through today's luxurious mobile palaces. The author describes the careers and achievements of nineteen of the pioneers of the recreational vehicle industry, and the impact that they have made on RVing and camping today. Illustrated with dozens of photos of early RVs, this book is a valuable reference that all campers and RVers will enjoy!
