The International Hairstyle Index

The International Hairstyle Index is a brand new publication in which the works of leading and innovative hairdressers and stylists from all over the world are being presented. The stunning photographic images give an excellent overview of the trends in the world of hairstyling, and are an essential resource for anyone with an interest in hairstyles and photography. In the first volume, published in November 2003, a hundred hairdressers from different countries are represented. At the beginning of each presentation you will find the name of the hairstylist, salon, make-up artist, photographer, and model (agency). The alphabetical index and the country index at the back of the book make it very easy to track down contact information of all participants. This lavishly illustrated, large-format book will be published annually. This book is of great importance for the hairstyling business, and for anyone with an interest in hairstyles.
