A Witch's Guide to Hauntings (A Book & Candle Mystery) (Volume 3) Aubrey Harper

Newbie witch Rory Wiltz was having a nice day until she got a letter from the Witches' Council telling her that her services were needed at a local inn that had a not-so-secret reputation for being haunted. Apparently recent disappearances at the inn and word of Rory's reputation for solving supernatural mysteries made her the council's number one choice. Rory has had her fill of ghosts and is not happy at all, but Hunter, a fellow witch and maybe her boyfriend if things go right, informs her that no one refuses the council without heavy consequences. Rory decides to check it out, and takes Hunter and her best friend Scott as backup. It's not long before they discover that they might be in over their heads. A few familiar faces from the police station make appearances as well. Rory will try her best, but things are looking pretty grim. If she doesn't figure out what's really happening at the inn, she and her friends might just be its latest victims...
