Haiku Nation P.J. Reed

Haiku Nation is a collection of poetic images exploring life in Devon. A special moment, witnessed and frozen in time through haiku and senryu verse.

the august sorrows
crumbling cream rose petals fall stolen by the breeze

dragonfly flutters
wings of finest cobweb silk seen we walk away

I am loneliness
the kind moon watches and sends me a shadow friend

"The poems of 'Haiku Nation' offer an intoxicating insight into the ethereal world of haiku...Highly recommended for haiku poetry lovers and for readers in general. A very enjoyable and warm book. Even the dark pieces of work trigger strong emotions. A follow-up volume would be most welcome. Spread the word, P.J. Reed is the haiku poet to read. A contemporary of Vanessa Daou."
