Real Estate: The Beginner's Guide to Mastering Real Estate Eric Alton

Learning even just the basics of real estate can be one of those things that, when you listen for too long or think too much about it, make your head spin. Although just a few courses are required to get your Realtor pre-license, the actual process of buying, selling, managing, flipping, and investing in real estate can get complicated. This doesn't need to be the case, however. Creating a solid foundation for how real estate works and how you can initially get involved, and then expanding off of those ideas with new, more complicated ones, is how you'll succeed. This book will show you how. During and after reading this book, you will:

- Master the foundational skills needed to make effective and rewarding decisions
- Feel in control and confident about entering the real estate world
- Get rid of your worries as you learn the steps to seeking profitable opportunities
- Gain the knowledge needed to kick start your career in real estate, or successfully profit from real estate opportunities on your own.
