Adventure, danger, and humor Escaping a horrendous raid on her village, Chewahnih, a beautiful Cherokee maiden, is forced to flee on foot or risk capture. Unaware of the peril that awaits her, Chewahnih is soon joined by two unlikely traveling companions that guide and protect her. Upon reaching the Red River Valley, she crosses paths with an injured warrior. While helping the handsome stranger recover from an embarrassing accident, Chewahnih discovers something in his possession that proves his participation in the attack that likely killed her mother and left her homeless and alone in the wilderness.
