Singapore: The Business Traveller's Handbook Ming Wong, Poh Yin Eng

Singapore, one of the most important Asian business destinations outside China, is proving a vigorous rival to Frankfurt, London and New York City in the freshly-drawn map of global finance in the twenty-first century.

This new guidebook sets out the key factors for doing business in Singapore today, and outlines in concise and jargon-free language the key steps to setting up business there.

Ming Wong brings the clarity and comprehensiveness for which the Handbooks have been acclaimed, and provides all the information the business traveler needs--be they a first time visitor or a long-term client.

Singapore: The Business Traveller's Handbook is written specifically with the global business traveler in mind. Like other guidebooks in the series, it is accessible to travelers from around the world, be they first time visitors to Singapore or dyed-in-the-wool businessmen.
