Sir Winston Churchill, spoken of as the Statesman of the Century, was born at Blenheim Place in 1874 and died on the 24th of January 1965. Over 150 stamp-issuing countries and states have honoured him. These issues range from countries with only one stamp to countries with several issues. The first stamps were issued at the end of World War II and continue to be issued right up to the present time. This catalogue is a review of many of the stamps issued as a philatelic tribute to Sir Winston Churchill. To collect Churchill stamps is to see how his influence and literary writings were recognized throughout the world.
