Fine Art Watercolors by James Scott Morrison: Western North Carolina James Scott Morrison
James Scott Morrison is an accomplished American watercolor artist whose passion for the so-called “unfriendly medium” has earned him a Signature Membership in the prestigious National Watercolor Society (NWS). His watercolor paintings capture both simple and capacious moments. He summons the viewer to step into the moment with generous layers of translucent paint and a tight, realistic style that reflects command of the medium. His paintings have been recognized in national competitions, by museums and featured in Southwest Art Magazine and Splash, the annual watercolor book compilation of the best of watercolor paintings in the United States. This book contains over 110 paintings by James Scott Morrison focusing on landscapes, life and landmarks in the Blue Ridge Mountain area of western North Carolina.
